Isn't It Great to Wake up Here in Warren County?

It's Nice To Have A Haven Here in Warren County...

It seems like every time we turned around this past year, something great was happening here in Warren County. Warren Wednesday savings launched with 20+ businesses to reward shopping locally...The Warrenton Rotary Club donated a clock for our historic Courthouse Square...you gave amazing amounts of toys for this year's Santa's Christmas List...the county-wide festivals in Wise, Ridgeway, Warrenton and Lake Gaston were as wonderful as ever. The list of things for which we can be thankful could go on and on and on...

If it sometimes seems the world is going mad, just smile and remember you get to come home to Warren County.

Enjoy the rest of your week!---Craig

Here's A Great Warren County Meal For Your Christmas Day Breakfast

Lloyd's Bakery in Partnership With Working Landscapes

I don't know about y'all, but Christmas breakfast has always been a challenge for our family (until some years back when some wise person "invented the Breakfast Casserole"). With Christmas dinner in the oven and lots of candy in our stockings I remember just kind of picking up something to eat here and there.

Well, wouldn't you know that our friends at Lloyd's Bakery and Working Landscapes would come up with a great Christmas Day Breakfast solution that is uniquely "Warren County."

Both Susan Long and Tim Williams sent me emails today with this delicious announcement:

Lloyd's Bakery & Working Landscapes are partnering to bring you a wonderful Christmas Breakfast Package for your family or as a gift. The Christmas Breakfast Package includes your choice of pastry (Almond Puff Pastry, Cinnamon Rolls, Moravian Sugar Cake); a pound of Joe Van Gogh House Blend coffee (whole beans or ground to order), and your choice of bulk mild sausage or maple sausage links (1 lb.).

Pricing:

		w/sausage
Moravian Sugar Cake	$21.50	$27.49
Cinnamon Roll	$25.50	$31.49
Almond Puff Pastry	$31.50	$37.49

Supplies are limited...Place your orders soon!

They will be accepting orders through Tuesday, December 20th. As always, orders are also being accepted for loaves and dinner rolls.

Contact Lloyd's Bakery at 252-257-1239 or via email at lloydsbakeryandcoffee@gmail.com or see them at 108 S. Main Street in Warrenton.

Warren County Courthouse Square Memorial Re-dedication

Honoring Warren County Residents Who Gave Their Lives in WWI & WWII

As you stand on Main Street in Warrenton facing our historic Courthouse Square, move to the area of the sidewalk next to the Rotary Club Clock...look straight ahead and you'll see a memorial to "the Men of Warren County who gave their lives in the cause of freedom" in World War I and World War II, erected many years ago by the American Legion, the American Legion Auxiliary & the Veterans of Foreign Wars. 33 brave men in World War I and 43 in World War II never came home to Warren County after the peace was won. We'll be honoring their service and their sacrifice in a special re-dedication ceremony for this Memorial with a flag raising on 2 February at 11:00am on the Courthouse Square (more details to come in the following weeks).

For now, I'd like to ask any relatives of these men to contact me so that I can extend a personal invitation to them to be our guests at this re-dedication. You can reach me at 252-257-2657 or via email at info@warren-chamber.org .

We will also be honoring those from Korea, Vietnam, the First Gulf War and Iraq & Afghanistan from Warren County who gave their lives.

My thanks to Linda Worth, our County Manager, and the entire Warren County grounds crew who have repainted the flagpole, repaired the globe at the top of the flagpole and added a light so that we can ensure the American flag is flying 24/7 over this Memorial honoring our Warren County heroes.

Christmas Time Means...Trains!

Visit Warren County's Own Weldon Train Museum & Electric Train Store

When the county we call home counts a town founded as an important railroad junction (Norlina) and also has another town that built and ran its own 3 mile railroad for over 100 years (Warrenton) AND we had two railroads built just for logging in the eastern part of the county, you know there will be train experts and aficionados here. Among the best I've met is Sears Bugg and his Weldon Train Museum and Electric Train Store.

Only twenty minutes away from Lake Gaston and Bugg's Island (Kerr Lake) & five minutes east of historic Warrenton beside the Warrenton golf course, the 600 square foot museum is located in the hayloft of a 1947 horse stable and features overhead O Scale trains with 200 feet of double tracks and a sixteen foot train table.

This local treasure features the world's largest collection of K Line O Scale cabooses, freight cars, passenger cars, engines, and catalogs are available for sale, along with a large selection of William's O scale engines.

I can guarantee you that train fans young and old will have an incredible time when you visit this museum. There is also a box turtle rescue and release pen beside the museum that is open to the public.

The Weldon Train Museum & Electric Train Store is located at 577 Highway 58

in Warrenton and open by appointment only. To schedule your visit, please call Sears Bugg (252) 213-5225 or Email him at searsbugg@embarqmail.com
